Lloyd Center Seeking Director of Development

Job Description

The Lloyd Center for the Environment, a highly regarded research and educational organization, headquartered in Dartmouth Massachusetts, seeks an experienced Director of Development to work closely with the Executive Director and the Board of Directors in developing and executing an aggressive fundraising strategy.

The Development Director will be involved in all aspects of fundraising, including corporate and foundation relations, grant-writing, gift-planning and membership development.

In addition to exceptional communication skills and the ability to network at the highest levels, candidates should have 3-5 years of progressively responsible experience in fundraising, with a proven track record in cultivating, soliciting and “closing” major individual gifts. Bachelors Degree required.

This is a full-time position (with benefits) and an excellent opportunity for a bright and motivated individual looking to join a high-performing team - salary commensurate with experience.

Please submit resume and cover letter to development@lloydcenter.org, referencing Development Director Search in the subject line, or mail to Lloyd Center for the Environment, 430 Potomska Road, Dartmouth, MA 02748.
